

GRAMMAR LESSON #1

Conjunctions, Commas, and Semicolons

1. Rogue waves are frightening. They are unpredictable giants.
 - A. Rogue waves are frightening, they are unpredictable giants.
 - B. Rogue waves are frightening and they are unpredictable giants.
 - C. Rogue waves are frightening, and they are unpredictable giants.
 - D. Rogue waves are frightening; and they are unpredictable giants.
 - E. Rogue waves are frightening; they are unpredictable giants.
 - F. Rogue waves are frightening and unpredictable giants.
 - G. Rogue waves are frightening, unpredictable giants.

2. A rogue wave can be very tall. It can travel thousands of miles.
 - A. A rogue wave can be very tall, it can travel thousands of miles.
 - B. A rogue wave can be very tall, It can travel thousands of miles.
 - C. A rogue wave can be very tall, and it can travel thousands of miles.
 - D. A rogue wave can be very tall; It can travel thousands of miles.
 - E. A rogue wave can be very tall; it can travel thousands of miles.
 - F. A rogue wave can be very tall and it can travel thousands of miles.
 - G. A rogue wave can be very tall; and it can travel thousands of miles.

3. Sailors know about the sea's dangers. They follow safety rules.
 - A. Sailors know about the sea's dangers, and they follow safety rules.
 - B. Sailors know about the sea's dangers and they follow safety rules.
 - C. Sailors know about the sea's dangers so they follow safety rules.
 - D. Sailors know about the sea's dangers so, they follow safety rules.
 - E. Sailors know about the sea's dangers, so they follow safety rules.

4. Life at sea has its risks. It also has beauty.
- A. Life at sea has its risks, it also has beauty.
 - B. Life at sea has its risks, and it also has beauty.
 - C. Life at sea has its risks, but it also has beauty.
 - D. Life at sea has its risks and beauty.
 - E. Life at sea has its risks, and beauty.
5. Sailors prepare for dangerous weather. They risk dying at sea.
- A. Sailors prepare for dangerous weather, they risk dying at sea.
 - B. Sailors prepare for dangerous weather; they risk dying at sea.
 - C. Sailors prepare for dangerous weather or they risk dying at sea.
 - D. Sailors prepare for dangerous weather, or they risk dying at sea.
 - E. Sailors prepare for dangerous weather or, they risk dying at sea.